EXPERIENCE

About CAMPUS Education

Since it opened its doors in 1999, CAMPUS Education has addressed the needs of both the local and international community, educating over ten thousand students in English as a second Language, computer networking and programming, business, and healthcare. We have changed our name from CPLC Education Center to CAMPUS to reflect the enhancement and expansion of our programs across the United States and the world.

CAMPUS offered its first classes in New York and New Jersey and now has branches in eight locations in the U.S. and India. We are committed to empowering students with the knowledge and skills required in today's fast-changing job market. By closely monitoring current trends in university programs and professional fields, we keep our course offerings innovative and our programs competitive.
