WHY MERCER

Mercer Bears are inquisitive, passionate, and dynamic. They are adventurous, fierce, and driven to succeed. Mercer Bears excel academically and strive to make a positive impact on everyone around them. They think globally, and after graduation, can be found making a positive difference all over the world.

BE THE BEAR

"I chose Mercer because I believe it is one of the top schools in the United States and because it has great variety as an institution, from ethnicity to student life to fields of study. The day I visited, I fell in love with the atmosphere and knew I wanted to be a 'Mercer Bear.' Mercer feels like my home away from home."
- Valerie Shaba, Harare, Zimbabwe, Biology/Pre-Medicine

ACADEMICS

A Dynamic Classroom

Mercer offers distinctive academic and experiential opportunities for leadership and service-learning that move the classroom out into the world to make an immediate impact.

Professional Advantage

Mercer's GUARANTEED ADMISSION PROGRAM provides qualified undergraduate students with a competitive edge over other applicants for these GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL DEGREE PROGRAMS:

- Bachelor of Science in Nursing
- Doctor of Pharmacy
- Doctor of Physical Therapy
- Juris Doctor
- Master of Accountancy
- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Medical Sciences/Physician Assistant

Each program has specific requirements.

I really like the size of the classes, the quality of equipment, the availability of resources and study environments, and the connections between faculty and students, which go further than the classroom."

- Gabriel Quintero, Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, Biomedical Engineering and French

12 SCHOOLS & COLLEGES

- Liberal Arts
- Business & Economics
- Engineering
- Education
- Music
- Law
- Theology
- Medicine
- Pharmacy
- Nursing
- Health Professions
- Leadership and Professional Studies (Evening, Weekend, & Online)

Earn multiple degrees in less time:

- 5-year bachelor of business administration + master of accountancy
- 5-year bachelor of business administration + master of business administration
- 5-year bachelor of science in engineering + master of science in engineering
- 6-year bachelor of science/bachelor of arts + law degree

Mercer's dual-degree graduate programs help student diversify their skill set by earning two complementary degrees—such as a law degree along with a master of business administration—that prepare graduates more comprehensively for their chosen profession.

Internship Experience

Mercer students have recently interned with top industry names like the American Red Cross, Google, Inc., PricewaterhouseCoopers, and The Coca-Cola Company.

Research:

Students in all fields of study have many opportunities to conduct cutting-edge research at the undergraduate, graduate, and professional level. Our students are currently collaborating side-by-side with respected faculty members on real issues in science, technology, economics, and more:

- Seeking better treatments for cancer, Alzheimer's, and diabetes
- Exploring pathways to provide electricity for schools in rural Africa
- Developing affordable prosthetics for amputees in Vietnam

MERCER LEGACY

Mercer Bears are Passionate Leaders.

The Mercer brand of leadership is built on our core values of service, integrity, and advocacy. For decades, Mercer graduates have gone on to hold positions of leadership—locally and globally—where they can advocate for positive change. Notable Mercer alumni include 12 governors, four United States senators, a U.S. attorney general, and numerous professionals and innovators. Mercer Bears collaborate frequently to raise awareness—and standards—and evoke global change.

Recent student-faculty initiatives include:

- College Hill Alliance, driving economic progress in Macon, Georgia
- Caring for Creation, encouraging action on climate change issues
- Local Engagement Against Poverty (LEAP), addressing the needs of the community

MERCER ON MISSION,

the University's most distinctive program, empowers students to use the expertise gained from the classroom and lab research to travel abroad and help others around the world. Mercer students and faculty have traveled to nearly 30 countries around the globe, providing medical care, relief assistance, and education.

"I really enjoy being able to walk everywhere. I don't have a car here since I am an international student, so it helps that I can get around easily. I also like living on campus in a community of people that are all invested in Mercer."
- Anssi Kaisalmi, Turku, Finland, Communication Studies

There's never an "average" day in Bear Territory:

- When it comes to campus life, our Bears love to get involved, balancing academics with membership in 140 student organizations.
- When you have a Bear's busy schedule, it's very convenient to live on campus. Mercer's residence halls and apartments offer our Bears a variety of habitats and amenities.
- Mercer is a proud, longtime member of NCAA Division I athletics, and most of the Bears' 18 men's and women's sports compete in the historic Southern Conference. [SoCon logo, NCAA logo]
- Students enjoy cheering the Bears' athletic teams on to victory. Attend any game on campus, and you'll see plenty of school spirit. You will see students wearing Mercer's official colors: orange and black. And you will feel the excitement of Bear Territory.
