COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

GMAT Preparation

This class focuses specifically on the verbal section of the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT). Students will learn about the various types of questions, discover new ways to approach each question, and practice test-taking strategies that will help them improve their score.

Written Communication

This course is designed to strengthen students' written communication skills that will help them succeed in MBA programs in an American university. In addition to practicing GMAT essays, students will refine their academic and business writing skills while working on correcting fossilized problems in various grammatical and structural areas.

Other courses that students can choose from:

Oral Communication, Grammar, Current Events/Reading and Vocabulary, American History, Critical Reasoning, and many other elective courses.

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

"This program helped me improve the GMAT verbal score significantly to gain entry into MBA programs. In addition, I honed my communication, writing, reading, and teamwork skills, gained more business knowledge, and reinforced confidence to communicate thoughts in front of an audience. In general, MBA Preparation program gives students an extremely valuable foundation for an MBA education that will, in turn, open the doors to a variety of career opportunities."

- Ha Phan
(Vietnam, MBA graduate at San José State University)

"The school has prepared me to succeed in an MBA program, teaching not only good strategies in order to maximize my time and pass the GMAT but also explaining the American education system and what the university will expect from MBA students in terms of knowledge, skills, and responsibility. The reliability and the academic relevance of the program require dedication and perseverance but all in a friendly, flexible and exciting environment."

- Greta Varena
(Italy, MBA student at Santa Clara University)

"I really appreciate MBP teachers who supported us very well by cultivating critical thinking skills and helping us build self-confidence. The hybrid of American and International educational environments that MBP offered works very effectively to reduce some cultural barriers that many international students have. MBP was my springboard to a competitive MBA program."

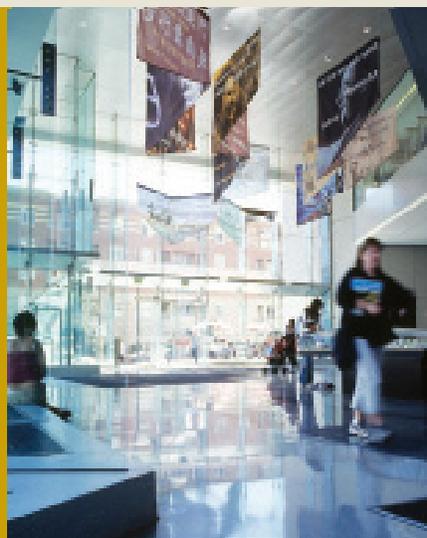

- Saori Sato
(Japan, MBA-One graduate of San José State University)

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

"I could know what American people are interested in now."

"It was good for me. I could understand American value, and other country's value. I thought it very interesting to know different behaviors in all world."

"We can practice to talk to classmates in English. And I'm not afraid of speaking English anymore. And one of my goals was to speak a lot of English here, so I enjoyed it."

"The U.S. culture is very interesting. People often say that teachers in the U.S. are very friendly, but they also encourage us to express ideas courageously."
